Georges River Golf Club

ROUND 3

Today was the 1st Round of the Golf Club's Matchplay Competition and after having only a few byes on the 32 person Elimination draw we had four of the competitor withdraw or just didn't turn up so there were four walkovers, to go with the already four byes. In the wash up. we could of had a 16 group pairing and finish one week earlier

We arrived at the course and it was hard to find a parking spot as there were that many other social group still to hit off. The Proshop said that we would be about 10 minutes late to hit off. I asked if we could hit off both tees when it was our time to hit off.

This arrangement worked out for the CHP RSL Golf as we got our game in before it got too hot and the groups in front our groups were very very sloooooowwwww, so imagine how long we could of been out on the grass if we all hit off the 1st instead of half and half with the 10th tee and you were in the 5th to 8th group.

Our new Captain George Liu on his first day on the job was immediately under the pump. He had to spit the group into two tee groups then, next it was getting the NTP's spikes sorted out and get extra bags to pick up the pins. Assign carts etc, find all the partners and who was late or not even coming, etc and organise the late comers to the divided tees, 1st or 10th tee. Oh ! you should be over there.
Roger Harriman's advise to George Liu , don't let then fluster you.

The results of Matchplay: Craig Tomison(bye), Roger Harriman(walkover), Jim Urquhart(walkover), Keith Johnson 4/3 over David DeMarchi, George Liu (bye), Greg Parsell(walkover), Joe Belinha 7/6 over Epi Manu, John Mandarini(bye), Keiran Nulty(bye), Sifa Nacagelivu 4/3 over Peter Deady, Mal Tyler 2/1 over Samy Ratnam, Joanne Kinkead(walkover), Bill Fonseca(walkover), Troy Wilks 4/3 over Joe Oriti, John Kottaridis 2 up over Robert Rubbo, Pardeep Singh 6/5 over Les Frost,
