Jamberoo Golf Club

ROUND 21

"The wheels on the bus go round & round, round & round, round & round, etc all day long, the golfers got on the bus at 5.50am, 5.50am, and left before 6.00am etc , early in the morning, the driver of the bus was Laurie McMartin, Laurie McMartin, Laurie McMartin half the day long , the golfer's on the bus said I want a cappuccino, no a latte , no a flat white, or was that a tea, or an extra bacon roll as the wheels went round and round.(I don't think any copyright has been breached)

12 Golfers travelled on the mini bus with its little caboose loaded with golf bags and buggies for the trip to Jamberoo G.C. with a rendezvous at Hungry Jack's, Hayward Bay outside of Albion Park with Robert Rubbo for the much anticipated breakfast of a bacon and egg roll with a mixture of assorted coffee and a tea, which was harder to deal with than the score cards at the end of the game.

THE Dirty Dozen met up with the rest of the field with only Greg Parsell going AWL, waiting at the course having chosen to drive by car, being Ron & Joanne after a week away via Merimbula, John Roach, Craig Tomison so our group to hit off grew to 17, for our Social game of the year out of town.

Janet Rowlands took along her pillow and was a comforting influence on the busee's as bus driver Laurie said all behaved in a manor expected on the trip, with no drinking on the bus till after the game and then for the trip home. All had a great day out and next year hope to get more to come on our out of town experience. Our numbers were more than we could attract to the Woollooware game

The Jamberoo G.C .was found , not only picturesque with the escarpment (big word) of the ranges behind and the Hyams River meandering through the course as well as the many creeks laying in wait to capture stray golf balls , of which there were many. The fairways were guarded by Electric fences which no one challenged when their ball crossed the great divide, although we did see one of the members crawl under, carefully I admit to retrieve his wayward shot. The course had many challenges and at one stage Joanne Kinkead nearly got a birdie with her ball finished inches from one of the Footgolf holes on the side of the fairways along the way.

After the game, some parched & dying from thirst, lay prone beside the bus, waiting for Laurie, with the bus key, to finish his game so the drinks under ice could be reached. We then went over to the Jamberoo Pub to have lunch, where Sid Pelcz took the orders for the Bistro, Mal organised a drink from the bar while Laurie organised the cards for George to do his thing, a humorous presentation
